

UNDERSTANDING CONFLICT OF INTEREST: ETHICAL ISSUES AND PROBLEMS

Course No: 104-1

Competency: Ethical Expectations

Audience: All

Duration: 15 minutes

Format: Online/Video

Quiz: 10 questions

Summary:

A conflict of interest occurs when your personal interests and outside activities conflict or compete with the company's business, objectives, or principles.

As an employee you must give your full-time best efforts to your work. Your employer must have your full attention during the time you spend on the job.

To avoid conflicts of interest, you need to keep your personal business completely separate from your company business.
